"As a recent graduate, I wasn't expecting much out of my first job besides a stepping stone to something 'better.' I've come to realize that M3 has bigger plans for me than that. M3 provides its employees with opportunities to grow through studies and experiences and obviously cares about our personal and professional growth." Christine LoSchiavo, Support Specialist

"I love working for M3 because the company's core values reflect those that I hold as important in my own life. I continually see examples of people walking the walk, not just talking the talk when it comes to integrity, innovation, personal renewal, and having fun."

Tony Dahlager, IT Support Specialist

"I like the autonomy I am given; I am never micromanaged."

Claire Flitcroft, Business Development Specialist

Mandy Kohl, Account Manager

"After doing my research I knew this was the place that I wanted to work. I watched for the right opportunity, and it has become a perfect fit for my skills and background. Now, I get to use my passion for customer service, knowledge of the industry and desire to help people, all while advocating for our customers."

David Princeton, Claims Facilitator
